Every single stroke for every letter is drawn with metrics and described in detail, along with many alternate forms that allow for considerable creativity. Clients include the Smithsonian Institute, The NY Public Library, Clinton Global Initiative, NY Society of Scribes, Long Island University, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the US Department of State.Refund/Cancellations: 72 hours notice prior to class date. Holland received an Icazet or calligraphic certification in Arabic script in 2013. Wait a moment and try again. It’s the only book of it’s kind that I’ve been able to find that’s written in english! Instructor Bio: Elinor Aishah Holland’s passion and enthusiasm for calligraphy began during a visit to Istanbul as a teenager. It may seem a little pricey, but it's worth every penny. Neither beginner nor expert can go wrong with this book, Clear-concise-methodical approach-with excellent easy to follow steps that are clearly illustrated-Impressive gallery depicting authors' sampling of professional client based work-highly recommended for all beginners to advanced students. I've bought several books on calligraphy, for both Arabic/Persian and Latin alphabets, and this is by far the best one of the lot. Anyone learning on their own can benefit immensely from this book as it contains exercises to build core competencies that are needed and then moves on to letter formation and then to the connecting of groups of letters. Many more advanced examples are provided, with guidance on maintaining readability. As a freelance lettering artist in Latin and Arabic scripts, her work includes all aspects of involvement with the art, including exhibiting, teaching, doing commercial and commission work. No refunds will be issued after the first session.What our classes look like Something went wrong. Her path eventually led her to master scribe Mohamed Zakariya. Finding the study of Arabic calligraphic forms difficult here in the US, she discovered the NY Society of Scribes and undertook an education in Latin lettering.
